Michigan-Mellon Design Fellows in Egalitarianism and the Metropolis

Applications open for 1-Year or 2-Year Post-Graduate Fellowship
Submission Deadline: January 11, 2018

MICHIGAN-MELLON PROJECT ON EGA LITARIANISM AND THE METROPOLIS

The Michigan-Mellon Project on Egalitarianism and the Metropolis is a year-long academic and research initiative focused on understanding the role of architecture, urbanism, and urban development in fostering and maintaining egalitarian societies. The project is supported by a generous grant from the Mellon Foundation and includes a series of workshops, seminars, and public lectures. The project is led by a team of scholars from the University of Michigan and involves collaboration with experts from around the world.

QUALIFICATIONS

The University of Michigan seeks candidates with a strong academic background in urban and regional planning, architecture, design, and related fields. Candidates must have a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in a relevant field. Applicants should have a strong record of research and publication, as well as a clear vision for how their work can contribute to the project's objectives.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. The deadline for submission is January 11, 2018. Please submit a CV, a cover letter, and a detailed research proposal outlining your proposed project and its relevance to the project's themes. All applications must be submitted via email as a single PDF file.