Paris, Geneva, Venice
Information, Big Data and Territorial Intelligence
Spring Travel Studio - Sandra Manninger & Matias del Campo
in collaboration with ENSA (École nationale supérieure d’architecture Paris-Malaquais), Philippe Morel (Director Institute of Digital Knowledge) and CERN

Contact: mdelc@umich.edu

Descriptions of Travel.
Every One of the main cities visited: Paris, Geneva and Venice, serve as a home-base for short trips in the respective areas. The home-base in Paris will be at ENSA, where students have the chance to enter into a discourse with French peers. The visit in Geneva focuses on a visit at CERN, and short visits to Sanaa’s Rolex Learning Centre. The trip to Venice is primarily focusing on a visit to the Architecture Biennale’s opening day with its massive program. Travel dates May 17 – June 15 2018